The Anzac Spirit – Lest We Forget

The Anzac Day tribute at Norlane Community Centre was a great success and a true team effort.

The Craft Group ladies made the poppies, the Art Group supplied paintings and the local residents brought treasured photos and memorabilia in loving memory of those who served their country in World War I and World War II, Korea, Vietnam and Afghanistan wars.

The crocheted and knitted poppies were magnificent and many residents asked if they could have one. Three poppies were taken to be placed on graves at Gallipoli and others were used on Anzac Day or kept as mementos.

The artwork for the LEST WE FORGET display was thought-provoking, initiating many conversations between friends and complete strangers while they scrutinised both displays. The centre's tribute to the ANZACS was well-received, attracting many people to view it after hearing about it from their friends or family.

Norlane Community Centre would like to thank all those who helped to make this tribute such a success.
